

TWO RIVER PEOPLE

By Joan Lucky

THE BEAUTY BALL 2007 SPONSORED BY THE MONMOUTH MEDICAL CENTER FOUNDATION

Dr. Melinda Staiger is the director of the Jacqueline M. Wilentz Comprehensive Breast Center at MMC. The center offers the most comprehensive array of breast services both for well and cancer care, to all women regardless of their socioeconomic circumstances. The Center consistently remains a leader in breast cancer research, technology, diagnosis and treatment, providing the most advanced services.

Dr. Melinda Staiger is the director of the Jacqueline M. Wilentz Comprehensive Breast Center at MMC. The center offers the most comprehensive array of breast services both for well and cancer care, to all women regardless of their socioeconomic circumstances. The Center consistently remains a leader in breast cancer research, technology, diagnosis and treatment, providing the most advanced services.

Committee members Adrienne Hoban (left) and Jennifer Patrick (right) joined Lucia Baratta, who is the vice president of development of the Monmouth Medical Center Foundation (MMCF). Jennifer Patrick is the owner of The Couture Exchange in Shrewsbury.

The Beauty Ball was hosted by Dr. Giulio Caruso (far right), on the grounds of his beautiful home in Colts Neck. David Burke of David Burke Fromagerie in Rumson was on hand to do the cooking and was an event sponsor. Jacqueline Tobacco (center) was the event co-chair. All proceeds went to benefit The Jacqueline M. Wilentz Comprehensive Breast Center at MMC.

Tammy Murphy is the president of the Board of Trustees of the MMCF. She is joined with Lucia Baratta.

The Beauty Ball committee members include (back row from left) Lauren Servidio, Jackie Guido, Georgia Manukas, Wendy Bright-Fallon, Jennifer Patrick, Adrienne Hoban, Christine Burke and Adrienne LoManno. Front row is Vicky McDougal, Dina Kowalchuk, Tracy Cornejo, Carlo Scarpino, Jacqueline

