Discounts on "it" bags

An amazing designer handbag is the "it" accessory of the year. But dazzling bags with star names like Gucci, Louis Vuitton, Prada, Fendi or Chanel do not come cheap, my friend. But here's an inside secret: You can count on very deep discounts (20 percent to 80 percent off!) at The Couture Exchange, which specializes in fantastic bags—some that walked the runway just last season, perhaps, or others that have been "pre-loved." This alluring combination of off-price retail and consignment means that new goodies are showing up all the time. And if movie stars can wear preowned vintage gowns to the Oscars, you can certainly sport a fabulous bag without going bankrupt. But bags are not the only obsession at Couture Exchange. You'll also find a carefully chosen selection of shoes, scarves, costume jewelry, wallets, men's ties, leather jackets and fun T-shirts with sayings like "Go Couture Yourself."
